SMALL GROUP · WEEK 1 OF 5

WEARY
BUT NOT FINISHED

Tonight: What Weariness Is Really After

RICK & ISABELLA PIÑA

Welcome.
You are in the right room.

This group is for people who have been doing the right thing for a long time and are tired of waiting on the harvest.

Being weary does not mean you are finished.

Our Five Weeks

1	What Weariness Is Really After	TONIGHT
2	They Never Quit: Joseph and David	Ch 2 & 3
3	Grace for the Heart That Hoped Too Long	Ch 4 & 5
4	Keep Doing Good Until the Door Opens	Ch 6 & 7
5	Finish Strong: Declare It and Live It	Appendix A

How We Will Do This

It stays here

What is shared in this room stays in this room.

Listen, do not fix

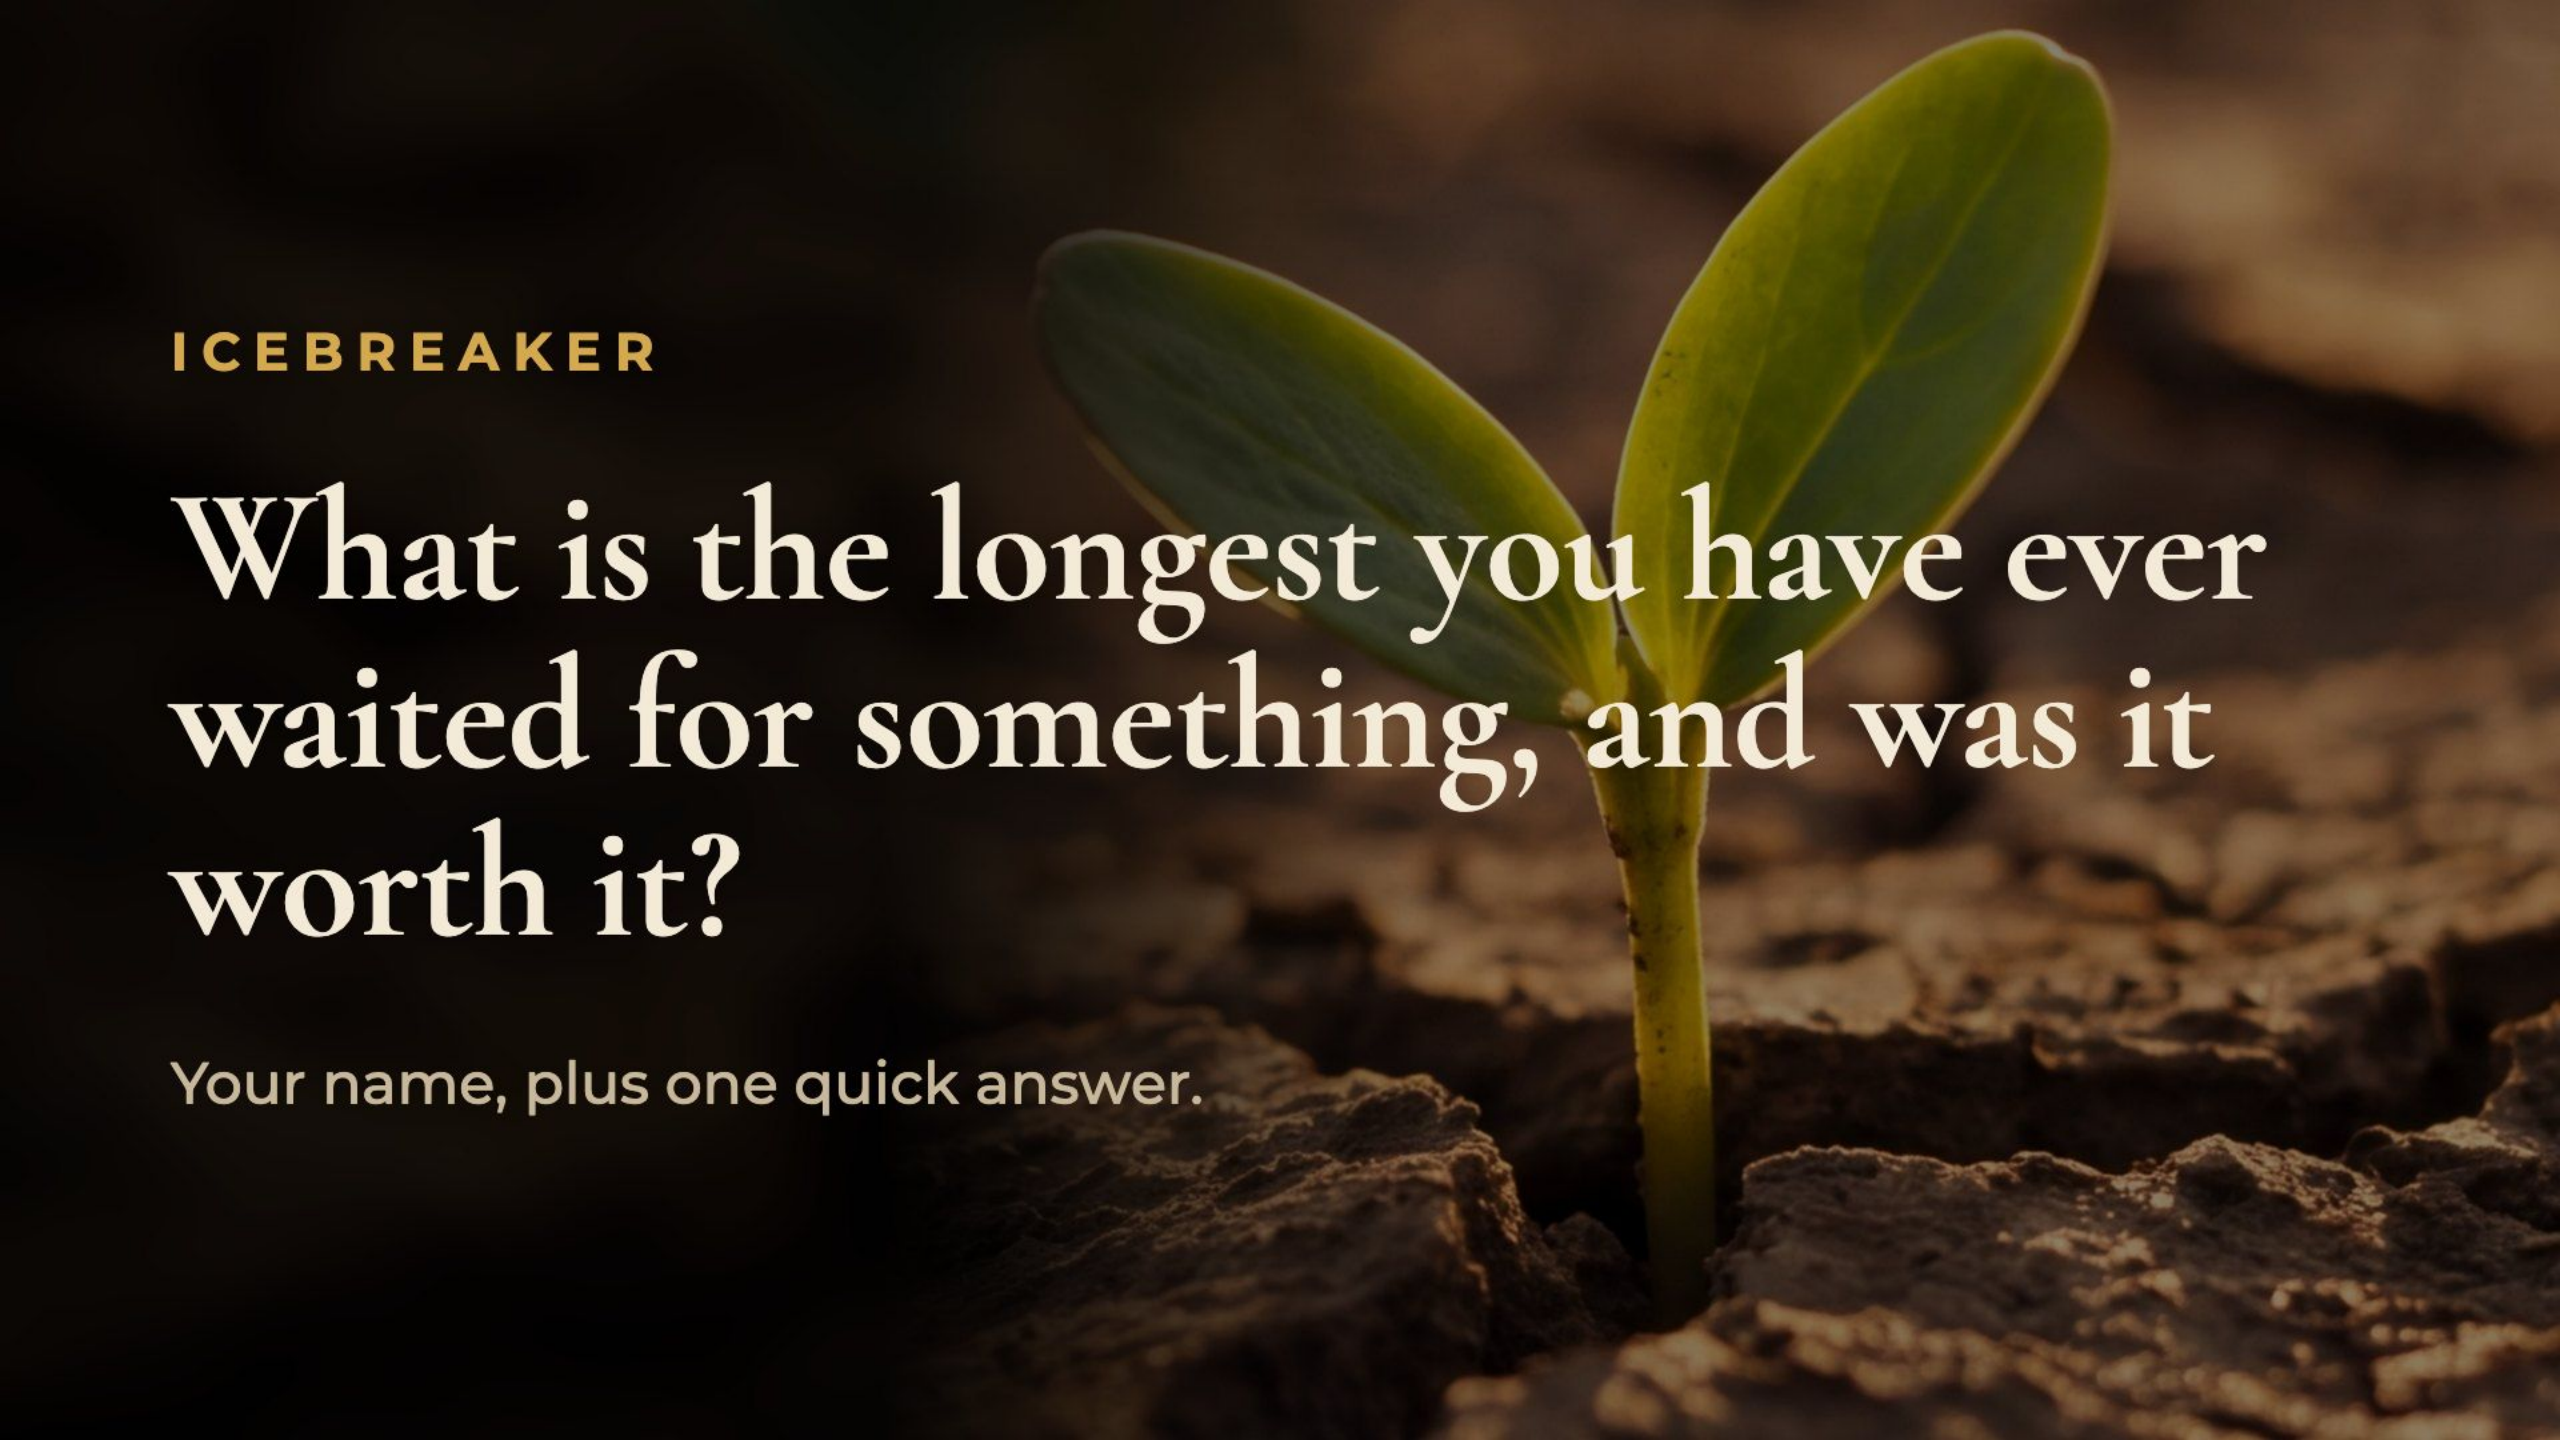

Pray for each other. Save advice unless asked.

Everyone gets a voice

Share, then make room for the next person.

Grace, not guilt

Nobody gets graded on how tired they are.

ICEBREAKER

What is the longest you have ever waited for something, and was it worth it?

Your name, plus one quick answer.

THE VERSE THIS SERIES STANDS ON

"So let us not grow weary in doing what is right, for we will reap at harvest time, if we do not give up. So then, whenever we have an opportunity, let us work for the good of all, and especially for those of the family of faith."

GALATIANS 6:9-10 (NRSV)

between the word and the manifestation

"I needed this too."

I did not write this book because I had it all figured out. I wrote it because I needed it.

Weariness is not after your rest.
It is after your harvest.
It walks like fatigue, but it fights like an enemy.

WHAT WEARINESS IS

The slow erosion of your strength to keep doing right in the gap between what God said and what you can see.

Weariness Attacks Near the End

Not at the start
when the fire is hot

Not in the middle
when the vision is crisp

In the long stretch
when the harvest is late

Weariness is not a sign that you are weak. It is a sign that you are close.

Weariness Is Coming for Four Things

1

Desire

your wanting

2

Memory

what God said

3

Heart

your hope

4

Vision

the size of the promise

TARGET 1 OF 4 · DESIRE

The Desire Is Part of the Promise

"I don't even know if I want it anymore" is weariness talking. A full life is not the same as a fulfilled promise.

TABLE TALK

What did you used to want badly that you have quietly stopped wanting?

TARGET 2 OF 4 · MEMORY

Keep the Promise Specific

What you do not remember, you cannot stand on. The enemy does not need you to deny the Word. He just needs you to forget it.

TABLE TALK

Could you say exactly what God told you, word for word? Where is it written down?

TARGET 3 OF 4 · HEART

Deferred Means Delayed, Not Denied

"Hope deferred makes the heart sick." A hard heart feels like protection. It makes it harder to receive the promise when it comes.

TABLE TALK

Smaller prayers? "I'll believe it when I see it"? A sting at someone else's breakthrough? Which one is you?

TARGET 4 OF 4 · VISION

The Size of the Word Is the Size of the Word

Weariness does not make you quit the promise. It makes you quietly shrink it. Do not trade Isaac for Ishmael.

TABLE TALK

How have your prayers changed size during the wait?

Same Field, Two Different Farmers

The Defensive Sower

Still shows up. But one eye is on the sky, waiting for disappointment.

Grips the bag. Little seed falls.

The Faith Sower

Plants as if the outcome is God's job. Knows it is already done in Christ.

Keeps the hand open.

"Don't allow yourselves to be weary in planting good seeds." Galatians 6:9 (TPT)

Let's Talk

1. Which of the four targets has weariness hit hardest in your life?

2. Where have you been trying to out-grind this with willpower?

3. Have you been sowing defensively? Where do you need to loosen your grip?

Where This Lands With You

Weary is not sinning

It happens to faithful people in long gaps. Ask Elijah.

Willpower will not win

You cannot out-grind a spiritual attack.

Name it, defend it

Desire, memory, heart, or vision.

Remember who you are

A child of the Most High, fighting from grace.

This Week

Write It Down

Write the word God gave you, word for word. Put it where you see it daily.

Say It Out Loud

Galatians 6:9 every morning. Pray the Chapter 1 declaration once.

Read Ahead

Chapters 2 and 3: Joseph Never Quit and David Never Quit.

DECLARATION OF FAITH · READ IT TOGETHER

Father, I thank You that weariness does not define me. I may be weary, but I am not finished!

I refuse to let weariness take my desire. The promise You gave me is still my promise, and I still want it, because You are the One who put the wanting in me.

I refuse to let weariness blur my memory. I will keep the word You spoke in front of me. I will write it down. I will speak it out loud. I will not let the gap steal the specifics.

DECLARATION OF FAITH · CONTINUED

I refuse to let weariness sicken my heart. I bring every bruised place, every cynical thought, every hardened reaction to Your grace. Heal what the wait damaged. Restore the soft heart I had on the day You first spoke to me.

I refuse to let weariness shrink my vision. The size of Your word is the size of Your word. I will not trade Isaac for Ishmael. I will not settle for half of what You said.

I receive the grace to stand in this gap. I am positioned. I am seated. I am Yours! I declare this by faith. In Jesus' name. Amen!

LET'S PRAY

You are weary.

You are not finished.

Next week: They Never Quit.
Joseph and David.
